Pedigrees from the Plea Rolls.

By Major-General the Hon. GEORGE WROTTESLEY.

Coram Rege Roll. Trinity. 2. E. 3. m. 128.

Hibernia.—In a plea of Quo warranto respecting franchises claimed by Roger de Mortimer and Joan his wife in Trym the pleadings give this pedigree.

Coram Rege Roll. Hillary. 2. E. 3. m. 98.

Sussex.—Thomas de Breouse sued Alina, formerly wife of John de Moubray, for the manors of Grenestede, Wassington, and Fyndon, and gave this pedigree.

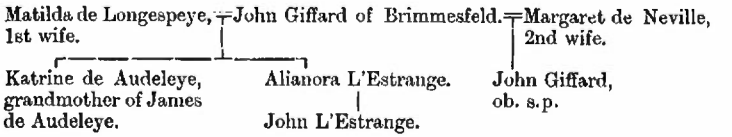

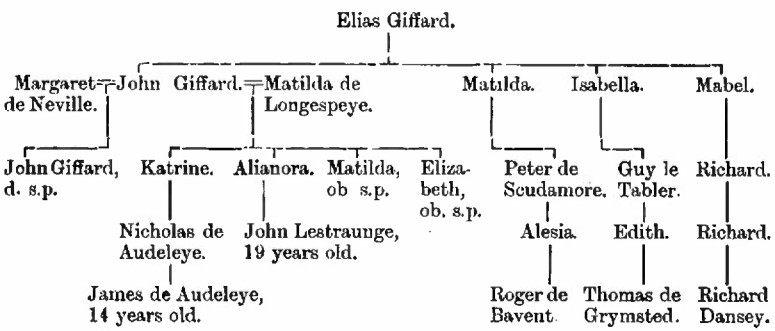

The process was continued till 5 E. 3, when it was shewn that Aline was dead, and the suit was dismissed.

Coram Rege. Mich. 1. E. 3. m. 119.

Glouc.—Wilts.—A suit to determine the nearest heirs of John Giffard of Brimsfield. The proceedings give the following pedigrees.

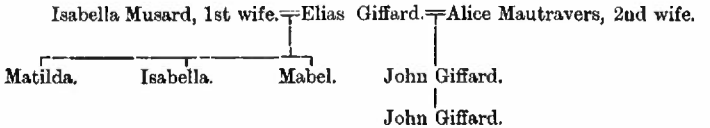

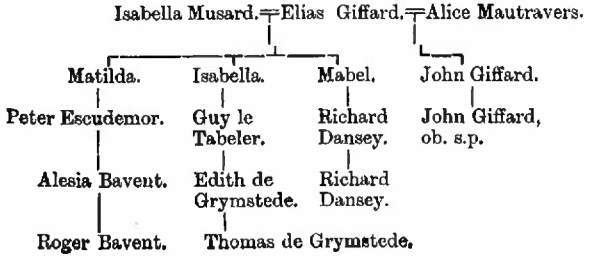

Roger de Bavent, Thomas de Grymstede and Richard Dansey claimed to be the nearest heirs, being of the whole blood, whilst James de Audeleye and John Lestraunge were of the half blood only.

The King's attorney, however, who appeared for the King's wards James de Audley and John Lestrange, claimed that they were the nearest heirs, and he gave the following pedigree to shew that the descendants of Matilda, Isabella, and Mabel were not of the whole blood.

The suit was then adjourned to the following Easter term.

At Easter term a new claimant appeared in the person of John Cailwey or Caillewe, who gave a descent from Elias Giffard, the father of the Elias Giffard of the last pedigree, and the jury found in his favor on the ground that he was of the whole blood whilst the other plaintiffs were of the half blood only, and the jury being required to shew why John son of Fulk le Straunge and the other plaintiffs were of the half blood only, gave these pedigrees.

Elias Giffard.
- Elias Giffard. = Alice Mautravers.
  - Matilda Longespee. = John Giffard. = Margaret de Neville.
    - Katrine.
      - Nicholas de Audele.
        - James de Audele.
    - Alianora.
      - John Lestraunge.
    - John Giffard, ob. s.p.
  - Berta.
    - Elias Cailwey.
      - John.
        - John Cailwey, the plaintiff.

The Court finally gave judgment in favor of John Cailwey in 4 Ed. 3, and by a fine levied in the same year, with the King's consent, John de Caillewe conveyed the Castle and Barony of Brumfield in Cos. Gloucester and Wilts to John Maltravers, the younger, for which John Maltravers gave him £1,000.

Coram Rege. Hillary. 5. E. 3. m. 38.

Wilts.—William, son of Robert, son of William de Keynes, sued the King for the manor of Somerford Keynes, and the Bailiwick of the Forest of Bradene which Adam de Pyryton had granted to his grandfather in frank marriage with Margery his daughter, and he gave this pedigree.

William de Keyne. = Margery, temp. Hen. 3.
- Robert, died 3. E. 1.
  - Robert, who had been unjustly disseised by Hugh le Despencer; ob. s.p.
  - William, brother & heir, the plaintiff.

Coram Rege. Hillary. 5. E. 3. m. 64.

Northampton—Hunts—Bucks.—Humfrey de Bassingbourne petitioned the King for the Forestership in fee of all the King's Forests in the above counties which had been held by his ancestor, William de Lysours, by charter of King Hen. 2, and he gave this descent.

William de Lysours, temp. Hen. 2.
- Alice. = Colin de Bassynburne.
  - Humfrey.
    - Humfrey.
      - Humfrey, the plaintiff.

Humfrey stated that the Bailiwick had been in the hands of King John by reason of the minority of Alice, and that King's descendants had held it ever since.

Coram Rege. Easter. 5. E. 3. m. 163.

Bucks.—John de Molyns and Egidia his wife sued Richard de Waldene and Alice his wife and others for the manor of Stoke Pogeys.

Amice de Stoke. = Robert le Pogeis.
- Alianora.
  - Joan.
  - Alice = Richard de Waldene.
- Thomas, ob. s.p.
- Peter, ob. s.p.
- Margaret.
  - Egidia. = John de Molines.

Coram Rege. Hillary. 5. E. 3. m. 162.

Cumberland.—Ralph de Dacre and Margaret his wife claimed from the King the custody of the Forest of Inglewode, and gave this descent.

Thomas de Multon of Gillesland.
- Thomas.
  - Thomas.
    - Thomas.
      - Margaret, d. & heir. = Ralph de Dacre.

Coram Rege. Mich. 6. E. 3. m. 44.

Somerset.—The Abbot of Glastonbury sued Philip de Welleslegh for the Sergeanty of East Perret. The pleadings state that King Henry, the son of William the Conqueror, gave the Sergeanty and Bailiwick to Avenant de Weleslie, and from Avenant, Philip gave this descent.

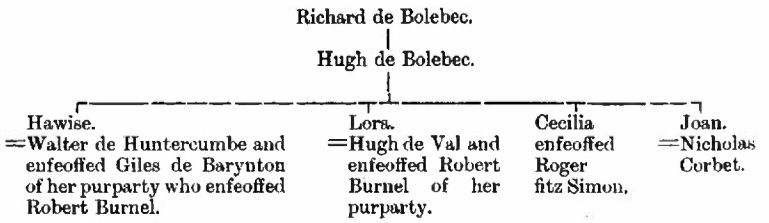

Avenant.
- Henry.
  - Henry, living temp. Hen. 3.
    - William.
      - Thomas.
        - Thomas.
          - Philip de Wellesley, the plaintiff.

A charter of Hen. 3, which was produced, stated that the Bailiwick was given to Avenant by King Henry his grandfather, viz., Hen. 2. The charter of Hen. I. produced by Philip was clearly a forgery, for it commences:—Henricus dei gratiâ filius Willelmi Conquestoris Rex Anglie, Dux Normannie et Aquitannie et Comes Andegevie.

Coram Rege. Hillary. 7. Ed. 3. m. 25. Rex.

Northamp.—In a plea of Quo warranto respecting franchises in Thyndon; the King versus Laurence de St. Maur, John de Harewude, John Poleyn,

Robert de Saudford, and Elizabeth formerly wife of Robert de Greystoke: it was stated that William de Fortibus Earl of Albemarle, in right of Christiana de Galowey his wife, had held the manor of Thyndon and granted a moiety of it to Richard de Bolebec and his issue.

Coram Rege. Hillary. 8. E. 3. m. 24. Rex.

Linc.—The King sued James de Ros for the next presentation to the church of Gedeneye which he claimed as guardian of Ralph de Goushill. The pleadings give this pedigree.

Coram Rege. Easter 12. E. 3. m. 124.

Essex.—John Dargentein sued John son of Ralph le Botiller and Joan his wife and William son of Ralph le Botiller and Elizabeth his wife and another for the manor of Fordham.

Coram Rege. Mich. 12. E. 3. m. 38.

Hereford.—The King sued William Hathewy for the next presentation to the church of Generewe, which he claimed as guardian of Lawrence, the son and heir of John de Hastynges.

Coram Rege. Mich. 12. E. 3. m. 135.

Lincoln.—Isolda formerly wife of Gilbert Peche sued Gilbert Peche for the manor of Billesfeld.

De Banco. 15. E. 3 m. 482.

Leic.—John le Warre and Joan his wife sued Margaret formerly wife of Albert de Grelle (Greilly) for a third of the manor of Herdeby.

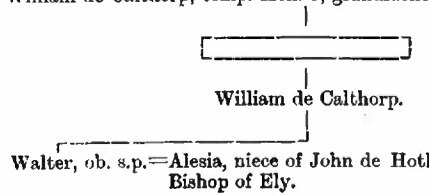

Margaret called to warranty William de Grelle.

N.B.—The plaintiff was the ancestor of the present Lord de la Warr, and married Joan the daughter and heir of Robert de Greilly, the Baron of Manchester. This Robert de Greilly represented a younger branch of the great house of de Grailly—Captal de Buch of Gascony—but the De la Warr pedigree styles him Robert de Gresley.

Coram Rege. Hillary. 16. E. 3. m. 114,

Norfolk.—William de Calthorp, Chivaler, sued John Bygot and Alesia his wife and others for the manor of Uppehall and he gave this descent.

It appears from the pleadings that in the will of Calthorp there were two manors called Kybaldhall and Uppehall: and Kybaldhall was called the manor of Calthorp and was held of the Honor of Gloucester and had been held from time out of memory by the ancestors of William de Calthorp. The manor of Uppehall was held of the Abbot of St. Benedict of Hulm.

Coram Rege. Easter. 17. E. 3.

Cornubia.—Theobald de Greneville sued John de Ralegh of Charles and Amy his wife for the next presentation to the church of Kilkhampton.

Coram Rege. Easter. 20. E. 3. m. 71.
