Bucks.—John Nowers, Kt., sued John, the Prior of Ravenestone, and another, for the next presentation to the church of Stoke Goldyngton.

Verdict for the plaintiff.

(To be continued.)

There is one more comment to make respecting this volume. Christ Church parish was constituted towards the end of 1546, and the Grey Friars' Chronicle states that on the 3rd of January 1546-7 "was sette opyn the churche agayen that was sometyme the Grayfreeres and masse sayd at the auteres wyth dyvers presttes and it was namyd Crystys churche." But the register dates from more than eight years earlier, i.e., 1538. Here again the difficulty is solved by referring to wills of some of the persons whose burials are recorded during the period in question, which wills sufficiently prove that the entries for those eight years relate to the parish of St. Nicholas Shambles.

PEDIGREE OF THE LORDS BURGH OF GAINSBOROUGH.

This account of a family of distinction (of which all previous ones are singularly dateless and inaccurate) is compiled by the Rev. Robert Eden Cole, M.A., Rector of Doddington, co. Lincoln, in which parish part of their possessions lay. It may be added that William, the fourth Lord, was bur. 2 Oct. 1584 "from Lambeth" at Lingfield, co. Surrey, and that his widow Katharine (Clinton) was bur. there 14 Aug. 1621. The burial at Gainsborough, 3 July 1599, of "Robert Burgh of Gainsburgh" is in all probability that of Robert, the last Lord, who was living 30 May1598, being then about four years old, and who was dead before 1601.
