In the chancel lies a large stone which had a handsome cross in brass, highly ornamented, in the upper part of which appears to have been a representation of our Saviour, and at the foot of the cross kneels a figure, perhaps a priest, with a label from his mouth; now all gone.

WORDWELL. Two coffin lids, with raised crosses, one of them much ornamented.

A figure, apparently a woman, with a label from the mouth, and inscription below, all gone.

A coffin-shaped stone, which had on the edge an engraved inscription and a plain cross in the centre, what remains, appears to be, WULLE VE ✝ DVVE ....
